

Weddings

2023

The Old Quay House offers an intimate and unique location for the perfect, memorable wedding day. Situated right on the water's edge of the RSPB Hayle Estuary Nature Reserve, enjoy awe-inspiring panoramic views, making for the most beautiful photo opportunities. You never know, some of our resident white swans may float by just at the right time for a romantic image to cherish.

The Old Quay House offers a whole host of wedding day options, providing you with the flexibility to have the day of your dreams; whether you desire a traditional grand affair or an intimate ceremony with just the two of you.

Trevor & Margaret have been in the hospitality industry for over 40 years and have used all of their knowledge to create the most charming wedding venue. If you would like to have a look around the venue and meet with them to discuss your options, please just let them know when you are free and they will be happy to arrange it. The Closest Outdoor Ceremony Venue to the Sea in Cornwall

Looking for an unbelievable ceremony venue just two meters from the sea? Our stunning Azura Deck Summerhouse offers an idyllic setting to take your wedding vows. Plan your civil ceremony to coincide with high tide and your wedding backdrop will add romantic sparkle to your fairy-tale day. The ceremony will take place within the Summerhouse, accommodating yourselves, your two witnesses and the two registrars. The surrounding decking area can then seat up to 30 guests.

Although outdoor ceremonies are spectacular, they are open to the elements and are weather dependant. A decision will be made by us the night before the ceremony as to whether an outdoor ceremony will be possible, unfortunately if not, alternative indoor arrangements will be made for you. Please be advised that as for all civil ceremonies, you will need to notify the Superintendent Registrar as soon as possible of you choosing an outdoor ceremony.

Love You to The Moon and Back

Full Seating - 60 Guests Banquet Style

Evening Reception – 70 Guests

Civil Ceremony Only – 30 Guests

Situated on the first level of the Inn, The Moon Suite is exclusively yours for the duration of your wedding. It's fresh, bright and airy interior offers the perfect backdrop for your chosen wedding colour scheme. You can also take advantage of direct access out onto your private terrace, with views across the estuary and access down to our waterside garden and Azura Deck. Most couples find The Moon function suite suits all of their requirements perfectly, with its own bar, toilets, and separate access with Stannah stair lift, however should you wish for complete privacy, there is the option of having exclusive use of the entire Inn for the day. As for the Azura Deck, The Moon Suite can accommodate Civil Marriage, Civil Partnership and Renewal of Marriage Vows ceremonies for a maximum of 30 guests.

Options & Costs for Your Day

Trevor & Margaret are here to guide you through all of the arrangements leading up to your big day. The Moon Suite will be made available to you the day before your wedding, so you can add all of your special finishing touches. The following services are also available free of charge, with our compliments:

- Use of our silver square or round cake stands and knife
- Printed table plan

Terms & Conditions

Booking Your Wedding and Confirmation

Your chosen wedding date is deemed provisional and will be reserved for fourteen days from the date in which we send your wedding details letter. Should you wish to go ahead with the wedding booking, we will require written confirmation including an address, full contact details and agreement with our terms and conditions, along with a non-refundable booking fee of £1000 (deductible from total wedding invoice). Should this not be received within 14 days, we will assume the booking is no longer required and the date will be released. A further £1000 will then be required four months prior to your wedding date, with the estimated balance due 28 days prior to your wedding. Any other balance should be paid on the day by cash/card. It is the client's responsibility to adhere to the payment dates and amounts and The Old Quay House is not obliged to remind the client of the contractual payment dates or amounts. No allowance, credit or refund will be made for food and beverages, services or other enhancements not taken or used during the wedding, which has been contracted in the invoice.

The number of persons attending the wedding must not exceed the maximum number stipulated in the wedding pack. The Old Quay House reserves the right to refuse entry if these conditions are not observed.

Final numbers, menu choices and dietary requirements are to be confirmed 28 days prior to your wedding date, with names of guest with special requirements detailed on the table plan which must also be supplied at this time, in preparation for us to type up and display on the day.

Civil Weddings - your booking is subject to you providing us with a copy of confirmation from the relevant registration office, detailing that you have given notice of your marriage and that you have booked the Registrars.

The timing of the ceremony must be agreed with us at the time of booking.

Food & Beverages

All prices are inclusive of VAT and will be charged at the rate at the time of your wedding i.e. the client will be liable for any additional costs arising as a consequence of a rise in VAT. All wine, drinks etc are subject to increase and will be charged at the current tariff as at the time of your wedding. All other wines, drinks, etc are to be paid for in cash/card. The Old Quay House does not allow guests to bring their own food, wine, spirits or soft drinks for consumption at an event. The import of guest food or drink is not an option and corkage arrangements are not available.

Strict hygiene procedures are followed in our kitchen but due to the presence of other allergens in some products there is a small possibility that other allergens may be found in any menu item. If you or your guests have any allergies, please discuss this at the time of booking.

Personal Belongings and Liability

The Old Quay House and its employees accept no responsibility for the loss or damage to any goods/items left on the premises. Please ensure all goods/items are removed by the end of your event. We cannot be held responsible for the failure of public services (e.g. water, gas, electricity etc), or for any disturbance beyond our control.

Cancellation

Any cancellation, postponement, or significant changes in arrangements must be confirmed in writing. All booking fees/payment instalments which have been made are non-refundable. If the cancellation occurs within 3 months of your wedding date, 100% of the total estimated spend will be charged. We do suggest you take out wedding insurance, to ensure nothing ruins your very special day.

Car Parking

Ample free on-site parking is available. We are happy for guests to leave their cars overnight, however cars must be removed by 10.30am the following morning.

Client Liability

The client shall be responsible for the behaviour of their guests and any damage to The Old Quay House property, including theft and water damage. Guests should not be excessive or rowdy, and offensive or illegal behaviour will not be tolerated. Consideration must be shown to other guests and our staff; we reserve the right to recover from the person making the booking any discretionary compensation payment or discount we may have to pay to other guests, as a result of your actions or members of your party.

Accommodation

For weddings with 50 guests or more, having a three course sit down meal, you will be offered one night's complimentary accommodation for your use. All accommodation is subject to availability at the time of booking the accommodation and not the wedding.

The Old Quay House reserves the right to refuse any booking.
